Values

Respect: We do not tolerate abusive or disrespectful treatment. Ruthlessness, callousness and arrogance don't belong here.

Integrity: We work with customers and prospects openly, honestly and sincerely.

Communication: Here, we take the time to talk with one another...and to listen.

Excellence: We are satisfied with nothing less than the very best in everything we do.

If how you think is how you lead...

mindset towards people?

Some Key Thoughts & Lessons Learned on our Journey

- ENGAGE THE ORGANIZATION

Engage with small groups of team members to share your vision, assess progress and identify gaps.

- Steve Kreimer
BW Papersystems

“I believe in the vision. But, what do you want me to do?”

“I know how to be a supervisor. I have no idea how to be a leader.”

MOTIVATION

Management

People are motivated by external rewards

Quantity is more important than quality

Leadership

We can not motivate another person

We can only create an environment where they can motivate themselves

- Waste Elimination
- vs.
- Frustration Elimination

- What about the people
  - who don't "get it"?

YOUR PEOPLE ARE JUST FINE.

- It's your leadership that's lacking.

- Key Thought
- Self-Deception

Do you have a blind spot?

We all do. It's called Self Deception

Key Thought

Perception Deception

When directed, partner up with someone near you. discuss what you perceived in the photo. Describe the scene to each other.

When directed, partner up with someone near you. discuss what you perceived in the photo. Describe the scene to each other.

- What accounts for the differences between what each person sees?
- Why is acknowledging these differences vital to effective leadership?

- Perception: What I see through my unique lens

- My lens travels with me and colors how I see the world

Connecting the Dots to Effective Leadership

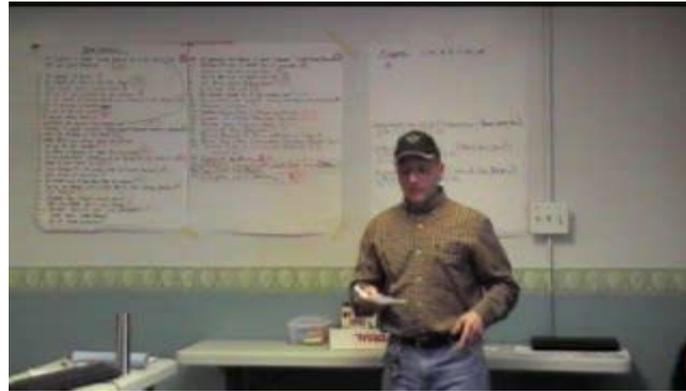

- How might this affect my leadership?
- I often fail to acknowledge my lens
- In the moment, I behave as if I am right and what I see is fact.
- This behavior is a MAJOR obstacle to engagement, fulfillment, and growth –it essentially blinds us to another person's needs

The most helpful thing a person can do is to listen.

Recognition and Celebration

What is Your mindset about Recognition?

- According to the 2015 Employee Recognition Report by the Society for Human Resource Management and Globoforce, values-based employee recognition significantly contributes to bottom-line organizational metrics and helps create a stronger culture and more human workplace.

THE CULTURAL IMPACT

The 823 HR professionals who took part in the survey had this to say about their employee recognition efforts:

- 90 percent say it positively impacted engagement
- 86 percent say it increased employee happiness
- 84 percent say it improved employee relationships
- 68 percent say it positively impacted retention

“You should shine the light into every corner of your organization to find those individuals toiling away in relative obscurity and celebrate the everyday greatness of each person.”

Marcus Buckingham - New York Times Best-Selling Author, Researcher, Motivational Speaker & Business Consultant

- What do you currently recognize and celebrate?

- Some learnings on our journey
- One's Efforts Hard work along the way
- One's Excellence Exemplary achievements
- One's Example Embodying the values

• BUILDING A CULTURE OF RECOGNITION – HOW?

Systems

- Daily Touch Meetings
- Report-Outs

Behaviors

- Leadership Checklist
- Essential component of communication

Programs

- Awards
- Events

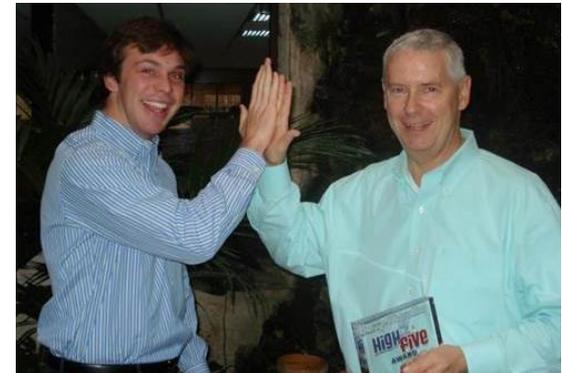

- DAILY TOUCH MEETINGS
- Connect team members to your vision
- Continuously improve
- Two-way communication-Engagement
- Sincere Recognition and celebration Not a task

GIVE THE GIFT OF GIVING

The High Five Program asks our Sales Executives, “Who helps you along the journey to a successful sale?”

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a light-colored jacket and blue jeans, is walking away from the camera on a sandy beach. She is holding the hand of a young child with curly blonde hair who is wearing a dark jacket and dark pants. Another child with curly blonde hair, wearing a blue and black jacket and dark pants, is walking slightly ahead of them. The background shows the ocean with waves breaking on the shore under a clear blue sky.

Invite the Family:
it's who
we work
for!

“I was never sure my wife really understood what I do, or cared that much... but she had a whole new appreciation for the impact that I have on the organization when she saw this letter. She was really proud, and that meant a lot to me.”

Key Thought Pause and Reflect

CREATE AND PRACTICE PATTERNS OF PERSONAL REFLECTION

We are more creative, inspirational, restful and purposeful when we create rituals, habits and patterns of reflection each day, each week and each year

Daily Depart Set a calendar reminder

Weekly Withdraw Pick a day/time

Annually Abandon – Consider a purposeful plan not just a “getaway”.

REACTIVELY PAUSE WHEN...

- Emotions are high
- The process is unclear
- Goals/objectives aren't being met
- The process has changed
- You just don't know
- Something's out of the ordinary
- Someone could get hurt

- “When Stuck”

I. Start with Why.

2. Engage the Organization.

Listen.

Identify Themes.

3. Bring your WHY to Life.

Systems. Behaviors.
